How to get the maximum benefit from your Lifestyle Rewards membership card

The Ambassador Card program is subject to change. We recommend members access a comprehensive list of up-to-date benefits on the web at www.ambassadorcard.com.au

The Ambassador Card cannot be used in conjunction with any other concessional, promotional or special offer.

Easy guide to:

Dining

The Ambassador Card can be used all year at restaurants except for:

Easter, Christmas Eve/Day, New Year's Eve/Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Valentine's Day unless otherwise indicated.

- Limit of two Ambassador Cards per booking unless otherwise specified.
- Cardholder must be accompanied by at least one other person to be entitled to use the Card.
- When you are presented with the Bill, give your Ambassador Card to the waiter together with your payment.
- When dining at a restaurant the benefit is one complimentary main course menu item, or the $ value indicated. When two main courses are ordered the restaurant will deduct the price of the least expensive main course from the Bill. With three people dining each guest must order a main course in order to receive the Ambassador Card benefit. Please note that only one Bill per group will be issued to the table.
- If a restaurant chooses to offer a saving on a fixed price menu the relevant amount will be indicated in the Validation Box.
- Entrees and child portions are not considered main course menu items.

Accommodation

Some participating hotels restrict the number of rooms available for Ambassador Card members. Bookings must be made directly with each property, your Ambassador Card mentioned when booking, and presented at reception on arrival. The room rate will be adjusted accordingly. The offer is not valid with any other 'special' or promotion. Block out times may apply during special events or peak periods.

At the end of each meal in the Hotel Restaurant it is important you show the Card to the waiter to enable the meal account to be adjusted before it is included on the final Hotel bill.
